To the Richard Wright Public Charter School for Journalism and Media Arts,

Greetings!

On behalf of the District of Columbia Statehood Congressional Delegation, I wish to extend hearty congratulations to staff, faculty and students on your 4th Annual Black Tie Gala Film Festival.

The mission of the Richard Wright Public Charter School for Journalism and Media Arts embraces the unique creativity of our youth while enriching academic achievement, civic awareness and community service. This program is fundamental to introducing success to our youth, and we are fortunate to have such a distinguished program in Washington, DC.

I give thanks to the staff and faculty of the Richard Wright Public Charter School for Journalism and Media Arts for your devotion to producing tomorrow's leaders. It is because of your dedication that our youths are able to pave their way to prosperity.

I also wish to commend the students on their hard work, and academic achievement. You possess the power to change the world with your voice, and I hope that you will continue to utilize your great talents to create a positive impact.

Best wishes on your night to showcase your inspiring talents to the community and beyond. I look forward to witnessing your success in the near future.

Very Truly Yours,
